- CHOU Tzu-an (恒 百分), treasurer of the Hong Kong office of the China National Aviation Corporation (CNAC), who has gone over to the Communists, has been ordered to go to Peiping in view of the tense international situation. He is to leave on 1 November. He stated that all Chinese Communist Government agencies in Hong Kong have been ordered to return to China, but to leave Hong Kong gradually.
- 2. CHOU says that the Chinese Communists are no longer interested in taking away the properties of the CNAC and the Central Air Transport Corporation impounded in Hong Kong and are willing to trade them for British properties on the mainland.
